

Adoniram completed translating the New Testament from English to Burmese. So, the Burmese people can read the Bible in their own language. Sadly there was a new problem, there was war. The English soldiers attacked Burma.

---

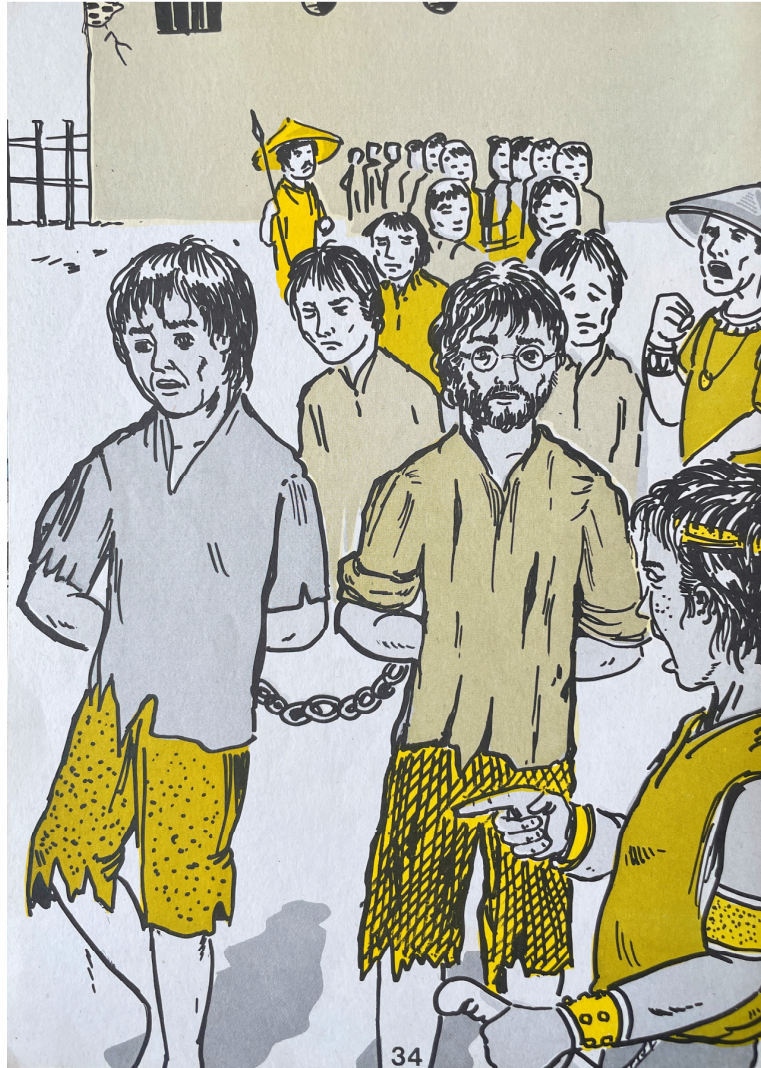

As the Burma was now at war with English, all foreigners in Burma were captured and put in prison. This included Adoniram and Dr Price (although they were not Englishmen).

---

Their most valuable treasure were the New Testament manuscripts translated by Adoniram. Ann placed the manuscript in a pillow and sent it to Adoniram, who was in the prison. Afterward, Ann gave birth to a girl, Maria.

---

One day, Adoniram was moved from prison to another place. As both of his hands were cuffed, so with a heavy heart Adoniram had to leave his precious pillow, which contained the New Testament manuscripts. However, he believed that if God called him, God will also help.

---